1. All exchange rates use the Operational Rates of Exchange of the United Nations Treasury as of October 15, 2016.
 2. A pledge is a general promise to provide assistance and is usually made for a particular time frame, though not always.
 3. Committed (or obligated) funds are those for which projects have been approved or agreements/contracts have been signed or are in the process of being transferred or disbursed. Committed funds are exclusive of disbursed funds.
 4. Disbursement is the transfer of funds from a donor to implementing partners (which could be governments, non-governmental organizations, United Nations entities, or private contractors, among others).
 5. United Nations Multi-Partner Trust Fund (MPTF). As of February 2017, the MPTF has received a total of $166.3 million from all donors between 2014 and 2017.
 6. United Nations Development Programme (UNDP). As of October 2015, UNDP had received $26.17 million in pledges with $26.17 million (100%) disbursed. For further information on total contributions, see "Resources for Results V: September 1, 2014 to October 31, 2015." Office of the United Nations Special Envoy on Ebola. November 2015.
 7. World Food Programme (WFP). As of October 2015, the WFP had received $302.17 million in pledges with $300.68 million (99.5%) disbursed. For further information on total contributions, see "Resources for Results V: September 1, 2014 to October 31, 2015." Office of the United Nations Special Envoy on Ebola. November 2015.
 8. World Health Organization (WHO). As of October 2015, the WHO had received $356.04 million in pledges with $307.51 million (86.4%) disbursed. For further information on total contributions, see "Resources for Results V: September 1, 2014 to October 31, 2015." Office of the United Nations Special Envoy on Ebola. November 2015.
 9. The $27.57 million pledged to UN funds and programmes represents contributions announced at the July 2015 International Ebola Recovery Conference only. According to the November 2015 report "Resources for Results V: September 1, 2014 to October 31, 2015," released by the Office of the United Nations Special Envoy on Ebola, a total of $1,227.95 million was pledged to UN funds and programmes with $1,157.12 million disbursed. Please note that in addition to the figures above, the World Bank disbursed $462.5 million to the governments of Guinea, Liberia, and Sierra Leone of which $193.2 million (41.8%) was regranted to the United Nations funds and programmes.
 10. Prior to the July 2015 International Ebola Conference, China indicated $6 million in Ebola-related funding to the MPTF in 2014.
